LIVINGSTON.

The Board of the Graded School here has had the school house property greatly improved. They have had the porch or ditch through the lot concreted and a walk put down from the street to the school house door. — Sheriff Cam Mullins, county clerk S. F. Bowman and circuit clerk T. J. Neeley, of Mt. Vernon, were here latter part of last week. — Atty. C. C. Williams and mother, Mrs. D. N. Williams, were here between trains Monday. Mrs. Williams was returning from Covington. — Judge L. W. Bethune of Mt. Vernon, was here between trains Monday on business. — A. C. Carpenter, who has been in London for a few days, has returned home. — W. M. Owens, who has been very sick for a few days is much better. — Dr. E. Walter Walker, of Clay county, has moved into our town and has hung out his shingle. Dr. Walker a surgeon of the State Guard and Dr. Amyx will practice together. This gives us three good doctors and at present all are kept busy. — Dr. Webb reports Mrs. R. G. Moore, of Trace Branch, much improved. — Dr. W. T. Amyx is attending the fair at Louisville this week. — Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rice, of Lebanon Junction, were here Sunday, visiting their parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Amyx, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rice. — Thomas Moore will move his family to Hayse, Ky. — We sometimes prophesy and sometimes guess at the outcome of elections and other things and twelve times out of a dozen we are correct, but we failed in our prophesy last week when we said there was a couple gone to Knoxville to get married. We were wrong in this but as the negro said: "We less up and the bible says that an open confession is good for the soul." — Mrs. J. H. Owens has been very sick for a few days. — R. L. McFerron, of Mt. Vernon, was in our town, Monday. — Miss Lizzie Owens, of the Quail Section, is visiting relatives in our town. — Judge Mahlen Summers, T. M. Dees, Dr. R. G. Webb and W. H. Ponder are attending the meeting of the Grand Council of the Jr. O. U. A. M. at Louisville.

Mrs. George Poynter, who has been very low, is very sick yet and seems to improve very slowly. — Misses Craze Large, Hallie Asher and Mae Evans have entered school at Mt. Vernon. — Mr. Abe Evans was in London Monday on business. — J. H. Owens, who has been very low, is a little better at present. — Miss Nettie Rice has returned from Bond, after a few days visit with relatives there. — Mrs. J. B. Hayes, after being confined to her room for a few days is some better. — Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Omary and children have returned after a few days visit with relatives at Stanford. — L. H. Davis is erecting a mill in our town and says that within a month's time he will have it running. He claims he will be able to grind one hundred and fifty bushels of corn a day. We are coming to the front. What do you say Mt. Vernon? — J. M. Fourie has returned from Pineville where he has been for a few days. — Fred Baker of Mt. Vernon, was here from Saturday until Sunday. — Elizabeth Owens has been very sick for some time, but is some better at present. — A revival meeting will commence at the Baptist church Saturday. — The Livingston Graded School began last Monday with Prof. Wilson as Principal, John Lear, Miss Mary Price and Mrs. Georgia McClure teachers. 160 pupils were enrolled and we have all indications of a good school. — D. B. Rambo has returned from Stanford. — Mrs. W. H. Warren is visiting relatives at Hazel Patch. — Mrs. G. S. Griffin has been on the sick list for a few days. — Louie Miller left for Louisville Wednesday for a few days. — Mrs. Mary Hagan is visiting in Louisville this week. — A few days ago the ladies of Livingston made a proposition that they would furnish a nice dinner to all who would help clean up the Cemetery, and on last Saturday about fifty men gathered there and the work was done. At noon there was a bounteous feast spread, a great deal more than was needed, and after the dinner was over the sick of the community were remembered and quantities were carried home. Livingston never does anything by the halves. This speaks well for this town. — Well, the Withers correspondent wanted all correspondents to write long letters. We would be glad to do this, but our crop of news some weeks is limited and we have to go against our wish and have a short letter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Owens returned Friday from a weeks visit to relatives in Casey county. — Roy Sowder, who has a good position in Danville, was at home from Friday until Monday. — Cashier A. M. Hiatt bought a house and lot from J. Thos. Cherry, on Main Street for $1500.00. This is considered as good residence property as there is in town, and is where Mr. Cherry used to live when in Brodhead. Mr. Hiatt bought the property at a great bargain. — Brack Durham is working as assistant agent for the L. & N. here now, and O. R. Cass is working third track while Vic Dunsmore is on a two week's vacation. — Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Pike, Miss Etta Cable, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tate, Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hiatt, R. H. Hamm, C. H. Frith, A. J. Pike, B. A. Yaden and John Robins are among those attending the State Fair at Louisville from here this week.

It was reported in last week's paper that C. A. Wheeldon had sold out his interest in the Mt. Vernon barber shop, and would locate in Chicago, but Mr. Wheeldon now thinks he found a better town, and is located in Brodhead with a first class barber shop. — Edgar Dunn, of Danville, is with relatives here for a two week's visit. — The little girl of Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Francisco, that was reported so sick last week, died Sunday evening and was buried at the Methodist church cemetery Monday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, after short services by the Rev. A. J. Pike. — Atty J. W. Brown, of Mt. Vernon, was in town Tuesday morning on business. — Mrs. Mary Flynn, who has been sick so long, died at her home Tuesday afternoon, and her remains were laid to rest in the Baptist church cemetery Wednesday morning at 10:00 o'clock. Mrs. Flynn received a fall last winter, and had been confined to her bed until relieved from her sufferings by death. She was a good christian woman, and had many friends. Her husband, Uncle John Flynn, died more than a year ago, and since that time her nephews, Ed and Charlie Hurt, have looked closely after her needs, and nothing had been spared to make her last days pleasant. Her grand-daughter, Miss Delia Flynn, lived with her, and did all that loving hands could do to nurse her to health, and was as seemingly as devoted to her as she possibly could have been to her own mother. Mrs. Delia Scanlon, of Louisville, a half sister of Mrs. Flynn, attended the funeral. The bereaved have much sympathy.

Aldrick Talbott, who deserted the U. S. Army about three years ago, was arrested by Special Agent J. E. Wallin Thursday last week and taken to Ft. Thomas. A petition is being circulated asking his release. — Mrs. J. R. Cass and Mrs. J. Mont Roberts, and little daughter, Ollie Mae, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hilton at Stanford during the week. — Mrs. D. E. Davis, of Nicholasville, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. H. Hamm, this week. — Rev. A. J. Pike filled his regular appointment at the North Rolling Fork church, near Gravel Switch, Saturday and Sunday. He informs us that he attended a baptizing at Perryville Sunday afternoon, and witnessed 45 persons baptised into the Perryville Baptist church. Dr. Cannon, of Louisville, closed a three week's meeting at that place Sunday, assisting Rev. Adkins, the pastor. Mr. Pike says that the number that witnessed the baptising was estimated at between 3000 and 5000 persons. — Mrs. A. T. Furnish is in Cincinnati with her mother who is not expected to live but a short time.

THE STATE FAIR.

A visit to the State Fair will open the eyes of Louisvillians to the fact—sometimes forgotten in civitus—that the fundamental industry is agriculture, is tilling of soil and breeding of stock. Upon that industry, in the world, and not merely in Kentucky or in America, rests primarily the social development of man. The small farm with its hens, its cows, its pigs, its grain, fields and meadows, its permanent farm buildings marks the point at which nomadic life stopped and the structure of civilization and enlightenment began. Upon the product of farms today depends the prosperity of nations, the financial strength that recruits and equips armies and builds navies, the maintenance of means of scientific research that are productive of victories of peace greater and of more permanent value than those of war. The lean years of agriculture are the lean years of business. Bumper crops mean bumper years for all fields of human activity. Kentucky always has been an agricultural State. Although the development of her mineral resources will revolutionize conditions in the mountains and create new wealth which will compare with that of the mining districts of Pennsylvania, the State always will be, in the main, agricultural. The State Fair which has become an established institution, is primarily a meeting place of planters and breeders, but is of great interest to city folk because it affords a glimpse of rural life as a business enterprise, and shows what progress is being made by the producers of the varied output of the oldest of factories; the first to supply mankind with the comforts and luxuries unknown in the period prior to that of fixed residence and forward-looking thrift.

The growing interest in country life that is everywhere observable makes the State Fair a magnet for a greater number of urbanites each year. The interest in better methods of tillage and stock raising which it has served to stimulate gives it a solid value in the eyes of all wide awake farmers. This year's State Fair promises to eclipse its predecessors as an exhibition and in point of attendance. No farmer who can attend should miss it. No Louisvillian whose view of life is from an angle broader than that of his personal activities will find it otherwise than well worth the time devoted to covering its important features.—Courier Journal.
